The Narrow Road, one of the strongest Biograph dramas of the year, is the feature at the Breed today, and features as its leading lady the fascinating little Mary Pickford. She plays the difficult part of the young wife of a counterfeiber, who when the play opens is just being released from the panibentiary with an erstwhile pal. Jim, her husband and a good fellow at heart, shows the result of being thrown into evil associations and swears that the narrow road is for him hereafter.

If an any time within the next three days you see the show at this house you will more than likely say with Dotson and Gordon, "I'm a little in doubt myself" as to whether there is any need of any other acts on a bill which includes them, but as you watch the show you will be inclined to think, as you office the remarkably close bends made by Waldo, the real contortionist, that after all Mr. Dayis knows how to arrange a show, and that the Waldo Address by Rev. New Remedy That Removes Freekles or Costs Nothing.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckie-Face, to try a new remedy for freckies with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion, the expense is triffing.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength, from Lee & Osgood, and one hight's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one cunce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to zak for the double strength othine, as this is the only prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it falls to remove freckles.

happy he and fit to live
On whom a happy home has power to make him trust his life and give His fealty to the haleyon hour.

— Tennyson.
